7. Commercial Booth Operators will be allowed to display and sell merchandise and offer some services, such as drawings or sketches. Some goods and services will not be allowed. No sales involving items which are considered to be risqué will be tolerated. Services such as pet grooming, hair cutting or merchandise such as coffins, no knives for sale with blades over 3 1/2" will not be allowed. Only goods and services considered being traditional parts of county or state fairs will be offered as commercial booths. Valid contracts are signed by the Fair with the Carnival Organization which operated the mid way at the fair, thus prohibiting sales of certain items or services. Drawings may be held for giveaways.

8. Booths which feature speakers or music will not be so loud as to create or become a nuisance to other booths in their area. Also, operators will use tact and diplomacy and not use their booths as a means of attacking the beliefs and ideals of others.
9. Once a booth has been rented, it cannot be sub-leased by the renter. Booths will be used only for the specific purpose stated.
10. All garbage needs to be placed in large garbage containers each night before you close at the end of each day.
11. Outside vendors will be responsible for using a portable drain water tank. All grease must be placed in grease barrels. No Exceptions!
12. The Fair Board reserves the right to reject any application for a commercial booth. The foregoing rules are for the specific protection and enjoyment of the general viewing public and are not to be construed as prejudice or favoritism for any particular person or group, regardless of race, creed or color.

Food Items

Food Vendors on the fair ground must conform to the rules set by the Fair Board. There are three general groups that serve food and/or beverages at the Jackson County Fair. These groups consist of Civic Center Independent Vendors, the Carnival Vendors and the Food Booths.

The following food items are only sold by the carnival vendors, cotton candy, candied apples, Polish & Italian sausage, funnel cakes, and corn dogs.

Soft drinks are sold by all groups. The Food Booths select the soft drink vendor for the fair. All food booths and Civic Center vendors must use the vendor selected by the food booths. The food booth's food items have some limitations.

There are a number of times that are traditionally (reserved) for the food booths only. Traditional home cooked items such as pies, cakes, gumbo, fried chicken, chicken and dumplings, fish dinners, barbeque dinners' & barbeque sandwiches, cole slaw, baked beans & potato salad, plate lunches which include red beans & rice, chili, spaghetti & meatballs, barbeque ribs, & chicken.

The prices for common food items that are sold by the food booths are determined by the food booths. This price is the minimum price. You may price your item above the established price but you cannot sell below this price. The food booth minimum prices are enforced by the Fair Association and the carnival vendors.

County Health Department Regulations Outside Vendors.

All outside vendor’s booths must be permitted by the County Health Department. This means applying for a permit and passing and inspection by County Health Department officials. I am including a County Health Department Regulations. They are also available at the County Environmental Health Dept.

Parking

During the morning and noon hours there is no parking restrictions enforced except for those governing general safety. Fire lanes must be kept clear. As soon as adequate numbers of our reserve policemen are available in the evening hours, parking is restricted. Areas are set aside for those participating in the fair. Parking permits are issued for these people. You may only load and unload between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 8:45 a.m. anyone inside the surrounding fence after 9:00 a.m. is subject to being towed at the owner’s expense. See attached map NO EXCEPTIONS!

Security

During the evening hours while the fair is on going security is provided by the Fair Association utilizing the Auxiliary Police Units from the county. However the Fair Association, Fair Board, & the Board of Supervisor cannot be held responsible for any items lost, stolen or damaged during the Jackson County Fair.

Taxes

Taxes will be collected on Saturday, October 27 by our Sales Tax Controller Carleen Cole. Tax envelopes will be provided upon checking in. If you have any questions you may contact Laura Baxter at 228-436-0554 Ext. 115 with the State Tax Commission.
